Introducing Broker

An excellent IFX backed opportunity

An Introducing Broker (IB) is essentially an agent which introduces new customers to IFX Brokers. In return, the Introducing Broker receives a fee, (rebates), which is a certain share of the Spread or Commission charged by the brokerage.

The IFX IB Program offers you lucrative rebates when you introduce potential clients. Anyone can try their hand at being an Introducing Broker, as you don't need specialized knowledge or experience of forex or CFDs. All you need is a desire to create your own business - and attract new clients to our business.

The occupation of an Introducing Broker best suits those already in the world of finance, such as financial advisors, successful traders, insurance agents, salespeople, bloggers, marketers, affiliate networkers, social media commentators - and being well connected doesn't hurt either.

Goal-oriented and driven

An IB works as a free agent and an independent; they need to have the drive that is needed to succeed. They must be a self-sufficient individual, able to chase down new clients and following up to make sure that they are satisfied with the service that they have been given.

Charismatic and outgoing

At its core, being an introducer broker is really a sales position, even if trading is also included. An individual who is hoping to make commissions as an IB will need to be able to sell products, and it's not enough just to know everything that there is to know about the project – you also need to believe in it, too.

Niche and specialized

Finally, though it isn't a requirement, the best introducing brokers will have specialized experience within the broker firm that they are working with. The more you know about your partner, the more successful you will be. It's worth it to take the time to learn about the special benefits IFX Brokers provides, or to comb through our marketing materials to find some new and unique selling points.

Introducing Broker

What we need from you

Educated and intuitive

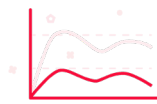

Those who decide to become an introducing broker will need to have a winning strategy; this strategy can only be developed through experience and knowledge. Those who manage funds that are not their own will also need to look into the legal ramifications and requirements involved. Regardless, IBs need to be able to develop a reputation if they are to be listened to by any potential clients.

Experienced and skilled

Not only will an IB need to make sure that they know the benefits of the forex brokerage that they are supporting, but they will also be able to sell our services to their clients and use IFX opportunities to upscale their skills and knowledge.
